

JACOBO CALLER APPOINTED NEW CEO OF FOOD DELIVERY BRANDS

Pablo Juantegui will remain as Non-Executive Chairman of the Group

Madrid, 1 December 2020 – Food Delivery Brands (“FDB”, formerly Grupo Telepizza), the leading global food delivery operator with a presence in 36 countries, a potential reach of 500 million consumers and over 2,350 stores, today announces Jacobo Caller Celestino as its new Chief Executive Officer. Pablo Juantegui, who has been CEO of the Group since 2009, will remain as Non-Executive Chairman of the Group.

Jacobo Caller, a graduate of Law from The Autonomous University of Madrid, is a Spanish consumer goods industry veteran, with more than 20 years of international consumer-facing leadership experience, most recently at Walgreens Boots Alliance, where he has served as Senior Vice President and Managing Director of the International Retail Pharmacy business. Jacobo has previously held roles at several consumer goods businesses including Carrefour and El Corte Ingles.

Caller will join the FDB group after completing his departure from Walgreens Boots Alliance and once all corporate approvals are adopted within FDB.

Jacobo Caller commented: “I have always been impressed by the strength of Food Delivery Brands, its leading market positions and its brands. I am now excited to have the opportunity to become CEO of the Group. I look forward to working with the team and our partners globally to deliver the best consumer experience and drive profitable growth, innovation and digital transformation.”

Pablo Juantegui commented: “I look forward to welcoming Jacobo in the Food Delivery Brands team. Over the past 11 years, we have strengthened our brands and social purpose, and we have doubled our size becoming a multi-brand group present in 36 countries, thanks to the excellent work of all the teams involved.”

Nat Zilkha, Partner of KKR, the majority indirect shareholder of FDB, commented: “On behalf of KKR and our partners, we want to thank Pablo for the leadership provided in his tenure with us. We are very excited to welcome Jacobo as new CEO of FDB. Our commitment remains to support the Group in its journey to become the best customer-centric, preferred, digital, multi-brand food delivery operator.”
